SUPPER STREET

A week to fill the table

FREE ILLUSTRATED GAME BOOKLET

Monday's opening comic. Read each panel, then choose how Riley responds.

Ride with Riley through a seven-day neighborhood adventure. The delivery is late, the cupboards are nearly empty, and Sunday supper still needs a plan. Grow food, buy groceries, help neighbors and decide which promises you can keep.

Start your week

Open the browser player with JavaScript enabled. Continue past the Truckfish Games screen, choose Start adventure, and read Monday's comic. A fresh week begins with $5, 3 portions and 4 actions a day. There is no timer.

Your goal: reach Sunday with 8 portions and no shared-supper debt. One portion is used each night from Monday through Saturday. Choices shape the people and meal at the end.

Play Supper Street free in your browser

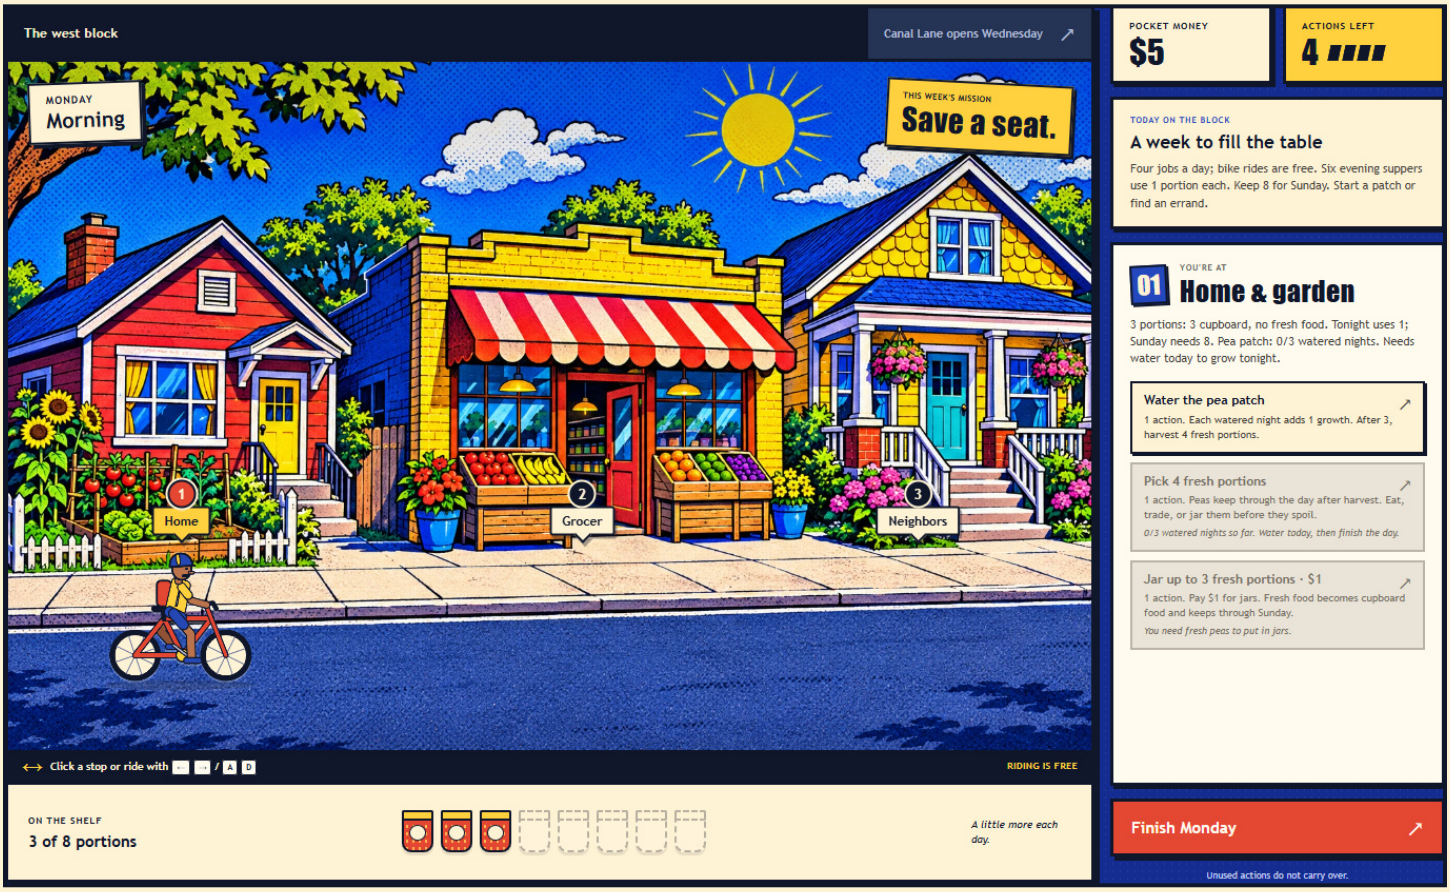

Supper Street game page

More Truckfish games

SUPPER STREET

Ride, read and choose

CONTROLS AND THE WEST BLOCK

Monday at Home & garden. The right panel lists money, actions and jobs. The shelf tracks portions for Sunday. Riding between the three stops is free.

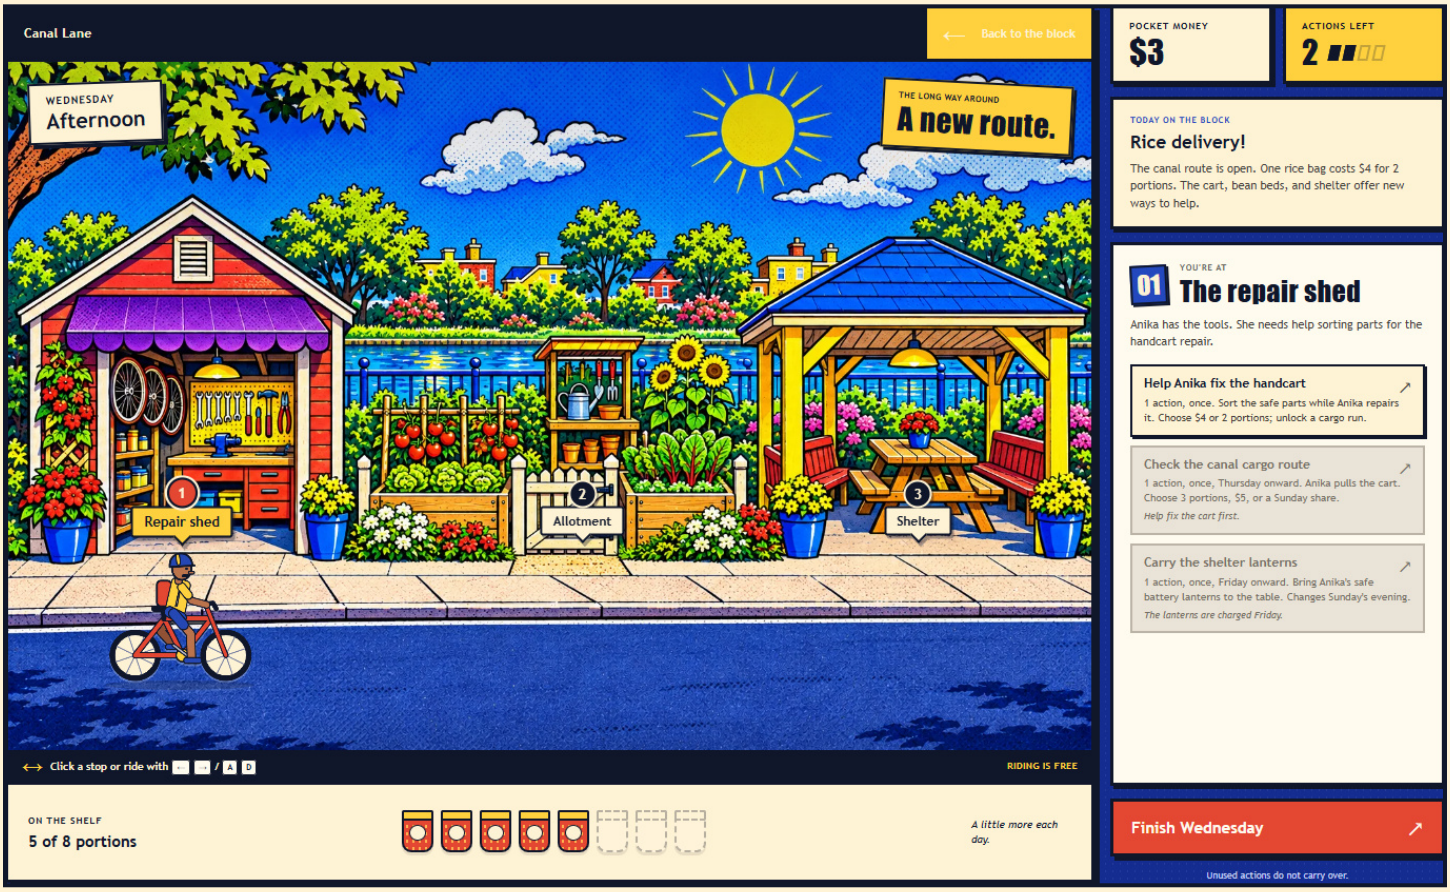

Mouse, touch or keyboard

Ride to a stop	Tap/click a numbered sign; Left/Right arrows or A/D ride between stops. Keys 1, 2 and 3 select a stop.
Change map	From Wednesday, tap/click the route button or press M.
Read and respond	Next panel or Right arrow advances; Previous or Left arrow goes back. Tap/click a choice when it appears.
Choose a job	Tap/click an action, or use Tab then Enter. Read its cost and availability before committing.
Pause and finish	Menu or Esc pauses from the map. Finish the day advances the week; unused actions do not carry over.

SUPPER STREET

Food, favors and the canal

USE THE WEEK YOU HAVE

Canal Lane opens on Wednesday. This visit shows the repair shed, allotment and shelter. Helping with the handcart offers a choice of cash or food and opens a later cargo job.

Keep food for Sunday

Most jobs use one action. The shop has delivery days, limited stock and prices shown on each button. Check the daily note before spending.

The home peas need 3 watered nights. Fresh peas can spoil; read their dates. Jar up to 3 for $1, or trade 2 fresh portions for 3 lasting ones at Jo's from Thursday.

Cupboard food keeps all week. Ordinary suppers use the oldest fresh food first. If a neighbor shares supper, new food repays that debt before filling your shelf.

Keep track of promises

Ms Bell's borrowed tin comes with a Thursday crate favor. Read the offer, leave an action for the job, and check the notebook for what you owe.

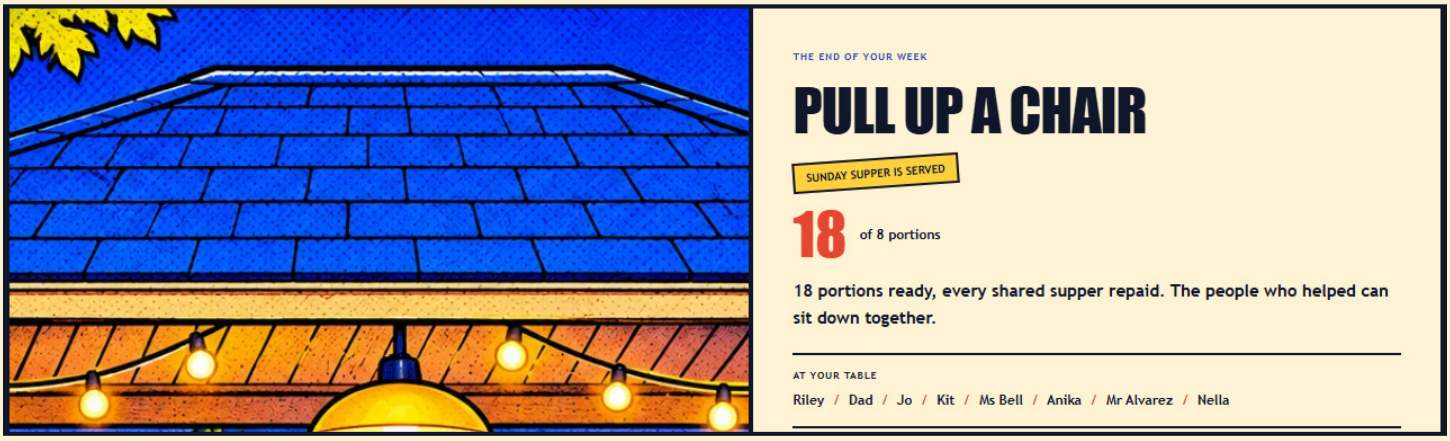

Canal jobs can lead to crops, a shared table, cooking and Sunday pledges. Read the comic choices: some give food now, while others promise help later.

The kitchen notebook records garden progress, promises and what happened. Revisit both maps when new days unlock new work.

SUPPER STREET

Come back for supper

SAVING AND THE END OF THE WEEK

A detail from one successful Sunday. The portion count, guest list and ending depend on your week; this is one possible result.

Save and return

The game saves as you go in this browser on this device. Return to the same site and choose Continue adventure. In Menu, choose Save week or Save & leave. F5 saves and F9 loads the saved week while the game has focus.

Browser data is local. It does not move between devices or browsers, and clearing site data removes it. If the game says saving is unavailable, keep the tab open to finish.

Before you set the table

Read Sunday's conversation to collect pledged food. Check the dinner target and any supper debt, finish useful jobs, then choose Set the Sunday table. Enough food with no debt earns the successful supper; falling short leads to a smaller meal. You can play another week.

For a clearer view, Menu > Settings & controls includes Larger reading text and Reduce motion. The week has no timed actions or sound.

The whole game is free: seven days, both maps and the endings. No account, payment or monthly choice is needed. Play in the browser; this release does not offer an installer.

Supper Street game page

Play the full free game

Browse the Truckfish Games catalogue